

The Institute for Urban Education (IUE), a UW-System program housed at UWM, provides alternative options to traditional student teaching for students who are interested in working in urban districts in the SE Wisconsin area. For the Fall 2021 semester, here are the options available for students:

IUE Student Teaching:

Milwaukee Public Schools
 Waukesha Public Schools
 Wauwatosa Public Schools

- Accepts All Grade Levels
- Accepts All Content Areas
- No Dual Placements
- Non-Paid Student Teaching Placements
- No Student Fee to Participate

Notes:

- *Limited Number of Student Teaching Positions Available
- IUE Application Required
- No Resume Required
- No Interview Required
- Supervision Provided
- Bi-Weekly Culturally Responsive Practices Cohort Sessions
- Gradual Acceptance of Teaching Responsibilities

IUE Internships:

Racine Unified School District

- Elementary K-9
- Special Education K-12
- $5,000 Stipend
- No Student Fee to Participate

West Allis-West Milwaukee School District

- Elementary K-9
- Special Education K-12
- $5,000 Stipend
- No Student Fee to Participate

Notes:

- *Limited Number of Internships Available
- Must Be Recommended by Home Campus
- IUE Application Required
- Resume Required
- District Interview Required
- Supervision Provided
- Bi-Weekly Culturally Responsive Practices Cohort Sessions
- Accelerated Teaching Responsibilities

To start the application process, please see your clinical coordinator and let them know which option(s) you are interested in. For questions about the Institute for Urban Education clinical placements, please email Amy Gutowski, IUE Clinical Specialist: alg5@uwm.edu Thank you for your interest in the IUE!

Visit our website: <https://uwm.edu/education/institute-urban-edu/>